NAWASA & Spice Mas 2014

August 14, 2014 - St. George, Grenada: The National Water and Sewerage Authority (NAWASA) has played its part in ensuring that its consumers were able have a fun filled Spice Mas 2014.

As part of its contribution, for the 2nd year running NAWASA ensured that consumers were a little less constrained in their celebrations. For one week, July 28th to August 1st, 2014, the Authority offered domestic and non – domestic customers disconnected on or before July 24th, 2014, amnesty from the customary reconnection fee as part of its Carnival Free Reconnection Promotion. Eligible customers were provided with the option of payment plans to facilitate easy clearance of outstanding arrears.

In addition, support was given to the Jouvert Band Belmont UFO, which for the past sixteen years paraded the streets of St. George for the Annual Jouvert Parade. For the second year running, support was provided to Sean Sour Serpent Niles, whose wonderful performance in the Di Marche Gras Competition on Sunday August 10th, 2014 earned him the 3rd position.

NAWASA congratulates all the winners for Spice Mas 2014.
